

INDUSTRIAL ZONE “STARO CICE”

VELIKA GORICA, HRVATSKA

With over 70.000 inhabitants in the wider city area, Velika Gorica is the seventh largest town in Croatia, and the largest settlement in Zagrebacka County (Zupanija). Located 7 kilometers from Buzin knot, the southern motorway exit to Zagreb, Velika Gorica is situated on the main intercity road Zagreb-Sisak (average daily traffic – 39.000 vehicles), with Zagreb Airport on the town's northern entrance (1,5 million passengers per year). The town's economic development is based on small business and agriculture: the 2.500 crafts and SME companies operate mainly the metal processing, wooden and services' industry, whereas over 5.000 agricultural undertakings grow fruit (apples, strawberries) and vegetable, or breed cattle.
